

Hurricane Half Marathon and 5K

May 3, 2008--- 6:30 A.M.

The Hurricane Half Marathon

The Hurricane Half Marathon is sponsored by Hurricane City and local businesses. If you're familiar with Zion National Park or Kolob Canyon, you know the beauty of this route. If you have never seen this area, you are in for a real treat. The half marathon is a challenging run that includes a variety of uphill and brisk downhill grades. Many local runners use this route to train for the St. George Marathon because it's a great conditioning run, full of challenges and scenery. We hope you will join us this year for our run.

*****Absolutely no support vehicles or dogs will be allowed on the race course.*****

Course Information

The Half Marathon route begins near the Nancy Ott pioneer marker just east of Virgin. The course follows SR-9's scenic route into LaVerkin, turning left on Main Street near the LDS church. The race continues along Main Street until it rejoins SR-9 at the south end of LaVerkin. The final leg of the race follows SR-9 into Hurricane, finishing at Hurricane High School. The 5K begins on Main Street in LaVerkin and follows the Half Marathon course into Hurricane, finishing on the high school track.
